

IN OUR PRAYERS

Imogene Giles, Ruth Payne, Kathy Darnell ,Robbie McClure (Marie Dunnam's brother) and Elizabeth Christensen (Kathy Skillen's niece) , Ronald Murray, Sr (friend of Kathy Skillen)

God of all nations, we give You thanks that we are all made in Your image, with such rich diversity. On this day we are in solidarity with the faithful around the world. As we break bread together, we remember that we are still one body in You, even though we have different languages, cultures and traditions, different ways of worship, praying and praising. In solidarity we drink the cup together of hope, of new life, knowing that Your will is for Your people to be one body. We are one body, but we are not the same—it is through the gift of diversity that we are able to be Your body. We thank You and praise You for making us all who we are, individually and collectively. We each celebrate our own ancestry, culture and ethnicity, and we come to You now in Your precious name.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Compassionate God, even when we know you created all human beings in your image, we recognize that we have failed to see your image in others. Violence, inequality, and injustice come as a result of our own barriers, and prejudices based on beliefs, race or culture separate us from others. It is because of our trespasses and failure to do right that we have forgotten to love others, especially those who are different from us. In your mercy, grant us your forgiveness that we may love others understanding that you loved us first. As we humbly gather around your table today, may we remember the everlasting love you so freely give us each and every day. In the precious name of Jesus Christ we pray.
