Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Heavenly Father, We read in Ephesians that we were chosen by God before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before God in love. God chose us...to be holy and blameless. We do try, but being holy all the time is not easy. Forgive us Lord, when we fail. We read that we are destined for adoption as God's children through Jesus Christ. Our identity as members of God's family should be apparent to others; being recognizable as Christians through our words and deeds. Forgive us Lord, when we fail. We also read that we were marked with the seal of the Holy Spirit which is the guarantee of our inheritance as God's own people. Knowing that the burden of living up to such an inheritance has been taken off our shoulders because of the grace which has been lavished upon us. For God also promised that in Jesus we have been forgiven according to the riches of His grace. May we always be aware of the tremendous privilege which has been bestowed upon us by God and may our response to such blessings be to live as grace-full and joy-full followers of Jesus Christ, our Lord and our Savior.
